Data Protection & UKGDPR

The laws around data protection changed on 25 May 2018 and the new legislation included the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). When the UK left the EU, new rules governing their relationship took effect. The UK has introduced its own version of the GDPR called the 'UK GDPR' because the scope of the original GDPR no longer covers the UK. The original GDPR is now called the EU GDPR. The UK GDPR is very similar to the EU GDPR-so in practice there is little change to the core data protection principles & rights.. The UK GDPR applies to personal data processed in the UK and individuals in the UK. The UK GDPR sits alongside the UK Data Protection Act 2018. The law gives clarity over the roles and responsibilities of anyone who gathers information on others, as well as setting out enhanced rights of the people whose data is collected. For information about how we handle your data, please read our privacy notice on our website www.hackneypension.co.uk

Declaration

- I have read and understood the notes overleaf.
- I confirm that I wish to move to the 50/50 section in the job(s) I have indicated on this form.
- I understand that during the period I am in the 50/50 section in that job I will only be building up half my normal pension in that job.
- I understand the choices I make now are important in planning for my retirement and that if I elect to join the 50/50 section I will have a lower income when I retire than if I was a member of the main section of the LGPS.
- I understand that any additional pension (APC) contract I have to purchase additional pension in the LGPS must cease (unless it is to purchase pension 'lost' during a period of authorised unpaid leave or absence or during a period of unpaid additional maternity, paternity or adoption leave).
- I have not been forced or asked by my employer to elect to join the 50/50 section of the LGPS.
- I am aware that at any time whilst I am eligible for membership of the LGPS I can choose to opt back into the main section of the LGPS by making an election to my employer.
- I am aware that:
  - if, during a pay period, I go onto no pay due to sickness or injury and I am still on no pay at the beginning of the next pay period, my employer will then move me back into the main section of the LGPS. On return to work I would have the right to make an election to move back to the 50/50 section if I wished to do so
  - my employer is required to automatically put me back into the main section of the LGPS approximately three years from the date they first have to comply with the automatic enrolment provisions of the Pensions Act 2008 (and approximately every three years thereafter). I will have the right to make a further 50/50 election at that time if I wish to do so.

Signature

Date

IMPORTANT: You can only sign and date this election form once you have commenced employment in the job(s) and you are in the main section of the scheme for the job(s) in which you wish to join the 50/50 section. You cannot sign and date the form before then as it will be treated as an invalid election.

For Payroll Use Only

Start Date of 50/50 section		50/50 % rate	%
Authorised by (name in block capitals please)		Date

When completed please return this form to Your HR or Payroll Department.

HR/Payroll - a copy MUST be sent to Equiniti using the secure up-load facility, Sharefile

Explanatory Notes – 50/50 Section

How does the 50/50 section work?

There are two sections in the LGPS from 1 April 2014 – the main section and the 50/50 section. The main section is where you pay normal contributions and get your normal pension build up. In the 50/50 section you pay half your normal contributions and build up half your normal pension during the period you are in that section. However, if you move to the 50/50 section you still get full life assurance cover, full ill health cover and full survivor benefits in the event of your death. In other words, the cover for those benefits is the same as if you were in the main section.

Data Protection & UK GDPR

The laws around data protection changed on 25 May 2018 and the new legislation included the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). When the UK left the EU, new rules governing their relationship took effect. The UK has introduced its own version of the GDPR called the 'UK GDPR' because the scope of the original GDPR no longer covers the UK. The original GDPR is now called the EU GDPR. The UK GDPR is very similar to the EU GDPR-so in practice there is little change to the core data protection principles & rights.. The UK GDPR applies to personal data processed in the UK and individuals in the UK. The UK GDPR sits alongside the UK Data Protection Act 2018. The law gives clarity over the roles and responsibilities of anyone who gathers information on others, as well as setting out enhanced rights of the people whose data is collected. For information about how we handle your data, please read our privacy notice on our website www.hackneypension.co.uk

You can elect to move from the main section to the 50/50 section at any time. An election to join the 50/50 section must be made in writing to your employer. This form can be used as your election. You will be moved to the 50/50 section from the next available pay period after your employer receives your signed election. If you have more than one job you can elect for the 50/50 section in one, some or all your jobs. If you are in the LGPS with more than one employer, a separate election form must be completed and returned to each employer where you wish to join the 50/50 section.

If you choose to move to the 50/50 section any additional pension contributions (Added Years or ARC's), or additional voluntary contributions (AVCs) would continue to be payable in full (not at half rate). The only exception to this is that any additional pension contributions (APCs) you are paying to purchase extra pension would have to cease (unless those APCs are to purchase pension 'lost' during a period of authorised unpaid leave or absence or during a period of unpaid additional maternity, paternity or adoption leave).

How long can I remain in the 50/50 section?

The 50/50 section is designed to be a short-term option for when times are tough financially. Because of this your employer is required to automatically put you back into the main section of the LGPS approximately three years from the date they first have to comply with the automatic enrolment provisions of the Pensions Act 2008 (and approximately every three years thereafter). Your employer will move you back into the main section of the scheme at that time irrespective of when your election to join the 50/50 section took place (even if, for example, you had only elected for 50/50 the previous month). Your employer will tell you when this is about to happen. If you wish to continue in the 50/50 section at that point you would need to make another election to remain in the 50/50 section.

If, during a pay period, you go onto no pay due to sickness or injury and you are still on no pay at the beginning of the next pay period, your employer will then move you back into the main section of the LGPS. That is to your advantage as you will then start to accrue full pension again, even though you will not be paying pension contributions. On return to work you would have the right to make an election to move back to the 50/50 section if you wished to do so.

At any time whilst you are in the 50/50 section you have the right to choose to move back to the main section of the scheme (provided you are under age 75 and you remain in a job that qualifies you for membership of the scheme). You would need to make an election to your employer to move back to the main section and an election form can be obtained from the pension website: www.hackneypension.co.uk. You would be brought back into the main section from the next available pay period after your employer receives the completed election form and you would then start to again build up a full pension. If you are in the 50/50 section in more than one job you can elect to move back into the main section in all or some of the jobs.

If you take up another job with your employer at the same time as continuing to hold your current job, you will be put into the main section of the LGPS in that new job. You would then have the right to make an election to move to the 50/50 section in that new job if you wished to do so.

If you change jobs and move to a new employer where you are eligible to join the LGPS your new employer will put you into the main section of the LGPS in that new job. You would then have the right to make an election to move to the 50/50 section in that new job if you wished to do so.

Can my employer ask me or force me to join the 50/50 section?

No, your employer cannot ask you or force you to join the 50/50 section. If you are asked or forced to join the 50/50 section you can inform The Pensions Regulator at: <http://www.thepensionsregulator.gov.uk/contact-us.aspx>

Returning the completed form

The completed election form should be returned to your employer's HR or Payroll Section. It is important that you fully complete this form. If it is incomplete, or you do not provide sufficient detail for your employer to identify the job(s) in which you wish to join the 50/50 section, the form will not be accepted as a valid request and will be returned to you for clarification.

Purpose for which this form will be used

This form, once completed and returned to your employer's HR or Payroll Section, will be used to cease your active membership of the main section of Local Government Pension Scheme, and commence deductions of half of your normal pension contributions as per your instructions on this form. The form will be retained as a record of your election to join the 50/50 section of the Local Government Pension Scheme or, if you hold more than one job with us, as a record of your election to join the 50/50 section in the job or jobs you have indicated on the form.
